

GENERAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The tuition for each program may vary from college to college. The university may charge interest fees on unpaid balance of tuition but may waive such fees for students with definite payment arrangement with CIU busines and finance office.

Note: Textbooks fees are not included in tuition. Students are responsible to obtain the necessary textbooks for their courses. Students are encouraged to use local libraries as well as the vast internet research resources that may be available to them.

Scholarship:

Cavalla International University has a need based limited partial scholarship for selected qualified students. Students must apply, demonstrate and provide reasons for them to be considered for the partial scholarship. When compared to other American online Universities with live interactive professors, CIU tuition and fees are one of the cheapest. It is therefore difficult to qualify for the partial scholarship, but the option is available for the few students with high academic standing and have special needs for financial assistance. Contact the admissions if you have questions.
